271 269 1 Q. What was the characteristic of the changes 1 Q. (By Mr. Dunn) All right. I'm going to move to 2 Senator Fraser wanted to his district? 2 a new topic. You spoke with Ann McGeehan about Senate 3 MR. FREDERICK: Objection, legislative 3 Bill 14, if I recall? 4 privilege. I'm instructing you not to answer. 4 A. Yes, sir. Q. And she was -- she left the Secretary of 5 I'll assert privilege. 5 6 Q. (By Mr. Dunn) All right. Earlier we asked, I 6 State's office, what, in January of this year; is that 7 asked you about discrimination in Texas. Are you aware 7 8 of any courts in Texas finding that legislative acts A. She left sometime this -- in the last couple of 9 9 months. I don't know exactly when. have a discriminatory effect or purpose? 1.0 10 Q. Have you had -- and the person that replaced A. Not specifically, no. 11 Q. Are you aware that in this most recent 11 her is a gentleman named Ingram; is that right? 12 redistricting cycle, a panel of judges in San Antonio 12 A. Keith Ingram. Yes, sir. 13 unanimously found that parts of the redistricting plan 13 Q. Keith Ingram. Have you spoken with him at all 14 in Texas either had a discriminatory effect or purpose? 14 about Senate Bill 14's implementation? 15 MR. FREDERICK: Object to the extent it 15 A. About Senate Bill 14's implementation. I 16 talked -- I don't recall. I know I think I've talked to 16 assumes facts not in evidence. 17 A. I didn't follow. 17 him. I don't know if it's specifically about Senate 18 Q. (By Mr. Dunn) You didn't follow? 18 19 A. No, sir. 19 Q. Turning back to Ms. McGeehan, did she testify 20 Q. Did you follow the United States Supreme Court 20 in either the House or the Senate committee as a whole 21 21 on Senate Bill 14? opinion in 2003 where a majority of that court found 22 22 that Texas legislature had been racially discriminatory A. She testified on Senate Bill 14, yes, in the 23 in redistricting? 23 Senate. Yes, sir. 24 A. No, sir. 24 Q. Did she testify in favor or opposition to it? 25 25 Q. At least with respect to the legislators that A. She testified on as a resource witness 270 272 1 passed Senate Bill 14, the vast majority of them were 1 Q. In other words, she didn't express an opinion 2 2 on behalf of the Secretary of State as to whether or not the same ones that passed the legislative redistricting 3 3 in both 2003 and the most recent set; is that true? Senate Bill 14 was a good idea? 4 A. I'm sorry. I don't know the votes of 4 A. Not that I recall. 5 redistricting in 2003. The votes of the redistricting 5 Q. Was there any effort by you to encourage 6 bill in 2011, I think only two senators voted against Ms. McGeehan to get behind the bill in her testimony? 7 it, and those two senators also voted against voter ID. 7 MR. FREDERICK: Objection, legislative MR. DUNN: All right. So I object to the privilege. I would instruct you not to answer. 8 8 9 9 responsiveness. A. I'll assert privilege. 10 Q. (By Mr. Dunn) I guess all I'm asking, though, Q. (By Mr. Dunn) In your -- I'm going to do 11 11 is that the senators that voted in support of several questions. He's going to object, and you're 12 12 redistricting in 2011 were the same body of senators going to answer, but I just want to get these out here. 13 that voted on Senate Bill 14? 13 In your conversations with Ms. McGeehan, 14 MR. FREDERICK: Objection, legislative A. Yes. 18 18 Q. Is it also true that the champions, so to privilege. I'll instruct you not to answer. 19 19 speak, the people who were pushing the redistricting A. I'll assert. 20 20 Q. (By Mr. Dunn) Did you provide Ms. McGeehan any effort in the Senate, were also the same senators that were pushing Senate Bill 14? 21 data or research that you had performed on the effect of MR. FREDERICK: Objection, assumes facts 22 the photo ID requirement on turnout? 23 23 MR. FREDERICK: Objection, legislative not in evidence. Object, vague. You can answer if you 24 24 privilege. I'll instruct you not to answer. 25 A. I really honestly didn't work on redistricting. 25 A. I'll assert.

275 273 1 Q. (By Mr. Dunn) Did you request at any time that MR. FREDERICK: To the extent you're 2 the Secretary of State's office prepare research or 2 asking her during -- during the development and passage 3 analysis on whether or not the photo ID requirement 3 of SB 14, what she thought at the time was available to 4 would have a disparate impact on minority citizens? 4 her to perform specific subject matter, subject matter 5 MR. I'd like to go with you to the last paragraph, 21 Governor, true? 21 and if I remember your testimony from earlier, you at 22 22 A. True. least prepared the initial draft of 31; is that true? 23 Q. Other than the resource of the Secretary of 23 24 24 State's office, are you familiar with any other Q. All right. The first sentence of --25 organization that you had sort of access to that could 25 A. The first phrase. 276 274 1 have performed an analysis, what I would call an 1 Q. And I told you the last paragraph. I really 2 2 analytical analysis of whether or not Senate Bill 14 meant the next to the last one that begins with "voting 3 would have disparate impact on minorities? 3 is"? 4 MR. FREDERICK: I'll object on the basis 4 A. Okay. 5 of legislative privilege, only to the extent that it 5 Q. The sentence reads: "Voting is one of our most seeks thought process or mental impressions during the 6 important rights as Americans, but it is also a 7 development and passage of SB 14, to the extent it --7 responsibility." Do you see that? 8 he's asking you as you sit here today, are you aware. 8 A. Yes, sir. 9 9 Q. Let me fix the question. Q. In my reading, I don't understand, and I don't 10 10 What resources other than Secretary of think it's defined in the writing here what it was meant 11 State did you have to consult about doing data type 11 be responsibility. Is there a sentence that informs 12 analysis on the effect of SB 14 on minorities? 12 what that phrase, "but it is also a responsibility," in 13 MR. FREDERICK: I'm sorry. Could you 13 this document? 14 14 read -- read the question back, sir? A. No. sir. 15 (Requested portion read back by the court 15 Q. All right. So what is it that you meant, at 16 16 reporter.) least when you drafted this, about voting is a 17 MR. FREDERICK: I'm going to object on 17 responsibility? I mean, why was that in here? 18 legislative privilege. I think that gets into thoughts 18 MR. FREDERICK: I object on the basis of 19 and mental impressions. I'll instruct you not to 19 legislative privilege, to the extent that it seeks a 20 answer. 20 thought or mental impression about pending legislation 21 21 that goes -- that -- underlying a public statement. So 22 MR. DUNN: All right. And I just want to 22 I -- as phrased, I would instruct you not to answer the 23 make sure. So she's not allowed to tell me what 23 question. 24 agencies or groups could have performed this analysis 24 A. I'll assert. 25 that she's aware of? 25 Q. (By Mr. Dunn) Do you believe that members who

277 279 1 don't have a significant population of minority citizens Fraser prepare legislation, do you have to consider how 2 2 in their district still have to take care to make sure that legislation will interact with federal law? 3 3 the minority citizens elsewhere in the state are A. In some cases, yes. 4 protected under the law? 4 Q. And do you think the state is authorized to 5 A. Yes 5 pass statutes that conflict with the federal law? 6 Q. In other words, if there's a member that -- and 6 MR. FREDERICK: Objection, relevance. 7 I know this doesn't happen, but if there's a member that 7 Objection, legislative privilege, to the extent it seeks 8 just represented 100 percent African-Americans, would it 8 her opinion with respect to specific legislation. To 9 be fair for that member to just ignore the needs of 9 the extent it just asks for your opinion, you can answer 10 Anglos and Latinos? 10 if you can. A. No. 11 11 A. I don't think I have an opinion. 12 Q. So when you prepare legislation or help Senator 12 Q. (By Mr. Dunn) All right. I'm going to switch 13 13 Fraser with legislation, do you consider it one of your gears on you now and go to the ID requirements 14 14 responsibilities to make certain that that legislation themselves. You were asked some questions about 15 doesn't have a disparate impact on minority citizens or 15 nonphoto IDs? 16 majority citizens? 16 A. Yes, sir. 17 MR. FREDERICK: Objection, legislative 17 Q. And as I understand your testimony, without 18 process. Instruct you not to answer. 18 going through it all, but under current state law, a 19 19 A. I'll assert voter can arrive at the polling location without a photo 20 20 Q. (By Mr. Dunn) Is there any -- have there ever ID and rely on some nonphoto IDs; is that right? 21 been situations where you've been working on bills where 21 A. That's my understanding, yes. 22 you believe there was a conflict in your duties under 22 Q. And some of those things are like utility 23 the state constitution and the federal constitution? 23 bills, for example? 24 MR. FREDERICK: Objection, legislative 24 A. Yes. 25 process privilege. Legislative privilege. Instruct you 25 Q. Do you have an opinion as to whether or not a 278 280 1 not to answer. nonphoto ID is as effective as a photo ID in 2 A. I'll assert. 2 discouraging voter fraud? 3 Q. (By Mr. Dunn) Do you believe that federal law 3 MR. FREDERICK: Just caution to the extent 4 it asks for your opinion as you sit here today, based on 4 is supreme to state law? 5 MR. FREDERICK: Objection, relevance. 5 nonprivileged matters, you can answer if you have an 6 opinion. Objection, vague. I would also object on the basis of 6 7 7 legislative privilege, to the extent it's asking for A. My opinion is the photo ID is a better 8 what she believes in her role as a role in the Senate. 8 mechanism to prevent fraud. 9 If he's asking for your opinion or belief as you sit 9 Q. (By Mr. Dunn) Now, do you believe that photo 10 here today, not based on confidential matters, you can 10 identification can be sort of manufactured? 11 answer if you can. 11 MR. FREDERICK: Objection, vague. I'll 12 A. I do -- I believe that the state -- that the 12 caution you to the extent you can answer based on 13 federal government is not superior to the states. 13 personal opinion, not based on privileged information, 14 Q. (By Mr. Dunn) All right. And that's not what 14 you may answer if you have an opinion. 15 15 I thought my question was. Q. (By Mr. Dunn) Have you ever heard of a fake 16 A. Okay. 16 ID? 17 Q. So, but I may have done a bad job of wording 17 A. When I was in college, yes, sir. 18 18 Q. All right. People had fake driver's license? 19 Really what I'm asking is, to the degree 19 A. A lot of people had fake driver's licenses, 20 there's conflict between federal law and state law, 20 yes, sir. 21 which one controls, if one does? 21 Q. And they would use them to go into bars and MR. FREDERICK: Objection, asks for legal 22 22 convince the bartender they were 21 and get an alcoholic 23 23 opinion. beverage; is that right? 24 A. I don't think I can answer that question. 24 A. Yes, sir. Back when we are younger, yes, sir. 25 Q. (By Mr. Dunn) Well, as you helped Senator 25 Q. You don't think people fake IDs any longer?
